

ANZAC Day discussion guide: Faith, remembrance, and peace

Name: _____

Date: _____

This guide will help you engage in meaningful discussion while exploring the themes of ANZAC Day, remembrance, and peace through a Catholic perspective. Be sure to listen actively, build on others' ideas, and reflect on your learning.

Discussion question:

How does the Catholic perspective on ANZAC Day help us remember sacrifice and promote peace?

Pre-discussion reflection (5 min)

Before we begin, take a moment to reflect and write down your thoughts:

- What does ANZAC Day mean to you?

- How do faith and remembrance connect?

- What does it mean to be a peacemaker today?

Sentence starters to help you participate:

- A Catholic view of remembrance teaches us that...
 - One way faith guides us in times of war and peace is...
 - Something that stood out to me from scripture was...
 - We can promote peace today by...
-

Discussion notes (15 min)

As we discuss, jot down key points that stand out to you:

- _____
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
-

Mid-discussion reflection (5 min)

Look at the discussion map and answer:

- Who has shared ideas? Who hasn't spoken yet?

 - What connections do you see between different responses?

 - How can we deepen our thinking?

-

Pair up with a classmate and share one new insight before continuing the discussion.

Second round of discussion (10 min)

Continue adding new thoughts and connections:

- _____
 - _____
 - _____
-

Post-discussion reflection (5 min)

Choose one and complete the sentence:

- One thing I learned about faith and remembrance today is...

- One way I can promote peace in my community is...

- A new perspective I gained was...
